BOLZANO

Piavestraße 15 Via Piave

• Luna Bar •

The cosy café in the city, hidden like a precious gem inside the recently renovated and ultra-refined Parkhotel Mondschein, welcomes you for breakfast, lunch and after-dinner drinks in its secluded, moonlit garden.

Michelin-starred chef Claudio Melis, together with his wife Monica Wieser and brother-in-law Robert Wieser (a renowned sommelier), are the dream team behind Bolzano's celebrated triad of culinary jewels:

• Tree Brasserie •

This French-style brasserie enchants with dishes placed in the centre of the table instead of individually arranged plates, according to the principle of food sharing. Sharing is caring at the Tree Brasserie.

• In Viaggio •

In Viaggio is an intimate, Michelin-starred restaurant: It only hosts one party at a time (with a maximum of 12 guests).

• iToma! •

Via Bottai 25 Bindergasse

The new tapas bar iToma! brings a long-awaited twist to town and perfectly pairs fine wine with tantalising tapas. Savour the moment and slices of bread dressed up with tasty toppings.

Eat & Drink

1

Il Corso
Piazza della Vittoria 44
Siegesplatz

Let yourself be spoilt by Fabiana, queen of desserts, and Santo, king of dough. In their unique café, they serve tasty pizzas and Southern Italian specialities, all freshly prepared with mastery and love.

2

Bogen Bistro
Dr.-Streiter-Gasse 31 Via Dr.
Streiter

The large window front offers a glimpse of the hustle and bustle of the city centre. Meanwhile, you can relax under the spectacular vaulted ceiling and enjoy a plentiful breakfast, a wholesome lunch or savoury appetisers.

3 Anita
Piazza delle Erbe 5 Obstplatz

If you fancy a taste of earnest yet sought after traditional South Tyrolean dishes, you have found the right place. Surrounded by classic wood-panelled walls and soft, subdued light, get ready for a romantic dinner or a very satisfying lunch with friends and family in the Stube dining area.

4

Laurin Bar
Laurinstraße 4 Via Laurin

The perfect place to hang out: A sophisticated lounge bar devoted to jazz music and full of charm, where you can taste sleek cocktails, chat with friends and read newspapers like it's 1930.

5 aLMa9
Via del Macello 9A Schlachthofstraße

An Israeli pastel palace of perfection just outside the city centre, where the Middle East meets South Tyrol in a shaded garden surrounded by olive trees. A corner of peace and quiet with international flair. Close your eyes and take a breath: Toto, we're not in Bolzano anymore.

Shopping

6

Annika De Haen
Via dei Vanga 49
Wangergasse

Ethereal, delicate, full of character and unmistakable: Goldsmith Annika's creations are as unique as she is. Northern design meets Italian colours between 18k gold and corals, gemstones and beads.

7

Sublime
Rauschertorgasse 15B
Via della Roggia

Take a look at the cult shop for all things hipster and cool in town, from flannel shirts to heavy duty jeans. Karin and Lukas know their local street culture and are always happy to give their style advice.

8

TonHaus
Via della Roggia 28
Rauschertorgasse

True works of art crafted in clay: thrown, moulded, pinched and pressed. Here, one-of-a-kind treasures take on all colours, sizes and forms. Christine has carefully curated a tasteful selection of handmade pieces. It is nearly impossible to leave the shop empty-handed.

9

Victorienne
Obstplatz 48 Piazza Erbe

Paris in Bolzano: This small boutique, run by Charlotte and her team, is an unparalleled temple of style devoted to high-end fashion and tempts you with an exquisite and refined selection of pieces.

10

GIUS Miniglück
Piazza del Grano 4B
Kornplatz

A nice boutique offering products that let children be children. Here, you can find practical, comfortable, stylish and sustainable children's fashion.

11 Mya Boutique
Dr.-Streiter-Gasse 20C Via Dr. Streiter

Japanese silk gloves, virgin wool scarves, cotton socks, fine jewellery, baggy trousers, statement totes: Every piece at Mya Boutique is sourced and selected from the most refined artisanal brands worldwide, with particular regard to textiles and materials.

12 Oberrauch Zitt
Via dei Portici 67 Laubengasse

This historic local shop brings all the charm of the best metropolitan boutiques to Bolzano's arcades. Guided by knowledgeable and friendly staff, it is the perfect destination for mixing and matching traditional apparel with the latest capsules in contemporary fashion.

Art

13

Fondazione Antonio Dalle Nogare Stiftung
Rafensteiner Weg 19 Via Rafenstein

Set in the hillside, the striking architecture, reminiscent of a concrete bunker, opens its doors to the most disruptive expressions of contemporary art, from the permanent collection to temporary exhibitions and spectacular site-specific works by international artists.

14

Foto Forum
Via Weggenstein 3F
Weggensteinstraße

The first art gallery in Bolzano focusing exclusively on photography promotes visual culture far and wide, with carefully procured exhibitions and high-level happenings, ranging from site-specific local research to international and global impressions, as well as historically acclaimed artists.

15 Museum Eccel Kreuzer
Silbergasse 10 Via Argentieri

An extremely rich and exhaustive collection that includes comprehensive documentation of modern painting from the regions of Tyrol, South Tyrol and Trentino. It was first carefully collected by patrons Friedrich Eccel and his wife Hilde Eccel Tapfer and later by their son-in-law Josef Kreuzer.

16

Museion
Piazza Piero Siena 1
Piero-Siena-Platz

One of Bolzano's crown jewels inside and out: The renowned contemporary art museum sports an imposing architectural presence while hosting exhibitions that compete with the foremost institutions worldwide.

Galleries

True art lovers will find lots of inspiration while visiting Bolzano's many art galleries, which present high-end contemporary exhibitions.

Explore & Relax

22

Montiggler See
Lago di Monticolo

The famous twin lakes, known for their bright blue waters mirroring an even brighter sky, are worth discovering while enjoying a bike ride through the lush surrounding hills.

Castles

Would you like to discover the unexpected splendour of the South Tyrolean middle ages? Visit the ancient castles, which are beautifully kept and filled with history and art, such as Maretsch/Mareccio, Runkelstein/Roncolo, Haselburg/Flavon and Sigmundskron/Firmiano.

23 Lido di Bolzano | Bozner Lido
Viale Trieste 21 Triester Straße

Indulge in some poolside relaxation, surrounded by Ettore Sottsass Senior's astonishing 1920s architecture. Here is where locals escape the summer heat, eat gelato and dive into the bright blue pools. The complex also offers a simple yet cosy sauna, a restaurant and a modern indoor pool. You're in for a lot of fun.

Ritten | Renon

Reachable via cableway (or e-bike – why not?), Ritten/Renon is the perfect place to enjoy some winter sun or a summer retreat with a breath-taking view of the Dolomites.

24

Parco Semirurali Park
Alessandriastraße 15
Via Alessandria

On the outskirts of the city, among working-class neighbourhoods (old and new), there is a big, bold green park that shines like an emerald and hosts concerts, events and parties.

Passeggiate Promenaden

Fancy a walk or a nice city hike? Enjoy the fresh air on the Oswald Promenade as you walk through the urban forest or enjoy the view, surrounded by exotic plants, from the Guntschna Promenade.

25 Passeggiata Oswald Promenade

26 Passeggiata Guntschna Promenade

27

Prati Del Talvera
Talferwiesen

The place where locals sunbathe in spring and bake in summer, skateboarders practise kickflips, youngsters play football, and the wild green mountains whisk you away to an untouched world.

28

Kohlern | Colle

After a pleasant cableway ride, feel free to explore Kohlern/Colle: Take a look at the view from the top of the wooden tower (it's steep but worth the sweat), savour a plate of Kaiserschmarrn torn pancake at the local guesthouse and fill your eyes with the unique beauty of Villa Bittner, which is also known by local kids as The Witch's House.
